What an idyllic and pretty setting surround this home, just under an acre is very manageable size but you'd be forgiven for thinking the block is much bigger - there are even cows in the next paddock.

The house is just right, not too big and not too small with the emphasis being on a light and bright open plan living area which opens up through wide sliding door to a very generous outdoor entertaining area with outdoor kitchen including a built in barbecue. You'll love the country side views from the well equipped kitchen with its lovely hardwood benches, pantry and quality appliances. The pretty leafy outlook has a very calming effect and allows space for lots of gardening, room to play, some pretty garden spots to sit and read and even a fire pit for those cooler winter evenings.

Air conditioning in both the house, the granny flat and sewing room make a very comfortable home year round and don't forget the large in ground pool for a cooling dip in our warm summers.

The 6x9m shed has been converted to include a "4th bedroom", bathroom, sitting room and kitchenette and can be used for family, guests, teens or even a home stay guest for a little extra income. At either end of the shed are a workshop with double roller doors and also a separate sewing or craft room or even a little separate home office.

The bottom corner of the block just touches on a little local creek which we have been told you might even find a yabbie or two if you look hard enough. Just 4km from the township of Eudlo with its school, transport links, Post Office, popular Sweethearts Café and the nearby Buddhist Temple and of course the convenience of the Eudlo Train Station for southern commuters.

It's a lovely little piece of the quiet life without having to live in a remote area. This property is ideal for retirees downsizing from much larger acreage, for a young family who want room for the kids to roam or the extended family who need space for secondary self contained living.
