Plenty of natural light and airflow and its north south alignment make this home a very liveable proposition year round. The generous north facing outdoor entertaining area overlooks the swimming pool and has wide double door entry points from the main bedroom and family dining room as well as the rumpus or games room. Fully fenced and with room to run and play, the 755m<sup>2</sup> yard is ideal for kids and pets or just enjoy the low maintenance garden.

The Old Orchard Estate in Palmwoods is deservedly in high demand for its larger blocks, a wide choice of shady walking trails and pretty waterside parks with playing equipment, the closest being just 280m from home. Just 800m from Palmwoods Primary School and buses to local secondary colleges, it's a great location for families.

Take a walk into town for Sunday morning brunch or coffee, or meet friends at popular lunch spots including Rick's garage and the popular Palmwoods Hotel. For the commuters you can make use of the local train station or it's approximately 8 minutes to the Bruce Highway.

If you're not already in love with Palmwoods, you soon will be.
