areas. There are new day/night roller blinds to all bedrooms and bathrooms. The huge outdoor area has been stylishly tiled and the built in bar with room for a bar fridge will promise many hours of happy entertaining.

There are lots of extras which not only add value but make this a super easy house to own and maintain, the retaining walls have recently been replaced with concrete sleepers, they'll last a lifetime, the garage floor has an epoxy coating for easy cleaning, the utility side of the house has artificial grass, no weeds and much kinder to little feet than gravel.

With side access, one of the sheds is big enough to house a project car, camper or trailer, the other has room for tools and toys keeping the garage for just the cars.

There is truly nothing to do here, just move in and enjoy.
