makes a great gazebo for family gatherings, a barbecue or a good chat around a fire pit.

Providing a truly rural feel the views across the South East make for picture perfect sunrises and sunsets across the rolling hills. Partner that with the traditional Queensland cottage and private established gardens and you have the perfect escape from the urban crush.

The heavy lifting has been done by polishing the hardwood timber floors and modernizing the kitchen which has been done in keeping with the timber accents of homes of this era. The bathroom has also been updated with wheelchair access to the shower. The Down stairs is the typical old school laundry with abundant storage space and a work bench for the crafter or handy person.

The recently enclosed sunroom or third bedroom has its own entry which is ideal for a home based business or parent's retreat.

Situated opposite Suncoast Christian College the location makes for very easy movement in all directions around the Coast. Sunshine Plaza, the airport, surf beaches and Hinterland towns are all within 15 minutes' drive.

If historical, authentic and full of character is your style this home is worth your inspection. Selling at auction if not sooner, prior offers will be considered.
