Built in 1996 the house has been a rental for many years and while it's in good condition its ready for a refresh and for someone to stamp their own style and turn it into a wonderful home. There is a lovely balance of established trees and cleared areas, the house is set back from the road ensuring a peaceful and private retreat from the busy outer world.

Most of the underneath of the house is full legal height, offering 2 car garaging plus secure storage for bikes, trailer, jetski etc and a workshop, or potentially to fully enclose under the house (STCA).

So much potential, and definitely one for the short list.
