Great Entertaining Deck and a Big Shed - The great Aussie Dream

An unconditional contract has been accepted on this property. Please contact the agent if you would like to be notified when similar listings become available.

Sitting high and dry above Nambour with views to the Hinterland, this solid brick and tile home sits on a generous 792m² block in a quiet cul-de-sac just 1km from the town centre. Built over 2 storeys and having a beautiful entertaining deck it draws cooling breezes throughout the house. Featuring polished timber floors and lots of natural light and fresh air, the house has a timeless appeal. Recently repainted, it's move in ready and for those who have an eye for potential there is scope for capital improvement over time.

There are 3 bedrooms, 2 bathrooms, a lounge and separate dining room, a front patio and large entertaining decks. Downstairs is full legal height with a large rumpus room, spa, separate storage room, an additional toilet, laundry and plus size double garage meaning there is potential to expand to a granny flat for extended family, a home business or a little side income. At the rear of the property is a 6m x 9m shed with wiring for 3 phase power connection.

- 2 storey brick and tile home, potential for dual living
- 3 bedrooms all with built ins, master with ensuite
- Polished timber floors, freshly painted throughout

Nambour was recently named in the Realestate.com.au top 10 growth suburbs on the Sunshine Coast. Currently undergoing a mini revival with the reopening of the towns iconic Club Hotel, there are now plenty of diverse dining options both in town and in the surrounding areas throughout the Coast and Hinterland. So many great coffee shops and eateries and a really positive and active energy returning this gem of a town to her former self make her a great place to start or continue your property journey.
