- Very low maintenance landscaped gardens, great for a busy lifestyle
- Keep living costs down with 1.6kw solar panels and a 5000Lt rainwater tank
- Walking distance to primary school, buses to secondary colleges & university
- Our owner's new home is under construction it's time to sell

There's an awful lot to love about this house, which is better suited to a family with older children as most of the yard is dedicated to low maintenance landscaped gardens, keep your weekends free without too much mowing. Just under 100m in one direction is a lovely shady park and play ground for kids and pets and 135m in the other direction is the popular Palmwoods State School. There's room for a plunge pool or spa but apart from that there's not one single thing needing to be done other than move in and invite your friends and family over for a meal.

Perfect for an active lifestyle with an abundance of walking tracks, scenic parks with BBQ facilities or just 800m away you'll find the local tennis club, aquatic centre and cricket field. Palmwoods hosts an array of popular eateries, weekend breakfast spots, markets and out door music events. It is well known for its welcoming, involved and inclusive community. If you're not already in love with Palmwoods, you soon will be - just ask a local! What are you waiting for?
