meaning there is a generous amount of space in the back yard. Providing comfortable separation between the main bedroom and living room at one end of the house, a central open plan family room and the remaining bedrooms, makes for a home which will work for most families of any age.

Turn your hand to some vegetable growing in the raised garden beds, there's already a tool shed and if it's on your wish list there's plenty of room for a pool. If walking or biking interest you, there are a wide range of lovely shady bush walks in this relatively flat part of Palmwoods, and for the more active a leisurely 2km walk into town for a coffee or breakfast.

Palmwoods State School is just 850m away, and also within easy walking distance are the local Aquatic Centre, Tennis Club and Cricket grounds. Great local eateries, the nearby railway station and quick access to the Hinterland towns makes Palmwoods a wonderful place to live.
